What's all the Buzz About?

It's not fall, but already the grapevine is ripe with juicy tidbits.... Moby's staff and owner Robert Steinbach are planning a huge week-long celebration for their 20th anniversary - that will be in May, so get your dance shoes ready now.

Randy Bachman's nephew Paxton was recently in town recording an album at his uncles studio. He joined Soul Shakedown on stage at Moby's for Bluesnight and provided a great show!

The island's only colour offset printing shop Barnyard Grafix may be changing hands soon. But don't worry, as Kevin Luke assures us "we can expect the same great quality and service as always."

Today is the Grand Opening of Country Grocer's New Cafeteria and Deli. Congratulations!!! Check it out.. They have a huge selection of deli meats and cheeses, salads and great new menu items in the café.

An island business owner was actually seen out shopping locally this past week... imagine that!

Rob "Harpo" Honey, bluesman Paxton Bachman and Andy Poystila rock the house at Moby's

Lookout Seaside, there's another great fish & chip place on the island and it's right in the heart of Ganges at Bocado's Bistro. The word is that their fish and home-cooked fries are absolutely to die for. When asked what makes them so darn tasty, bistro owner Lynda Voyce tells us that it's a special family recipe with secret ingredients. You have to come in and try them.

A new fast food joint is now open in Fulford. It's fire engine red, 9 doors up from the ferry and it's not McD's. No, it's David O'Flynn's own special hot dog stand, complete with stainless steel outdoor grill and all the fixin's. Try David's Dogs next time your waiting in line for "Ol' Faithful".

Which Ads are FREE?

We get asked this question a lot and the answer is simple:

Any non-business related ad is free. Selling your car privately, or giving away a couch, or selling your boat, lost & found, etc.

All business related ads cost either $7.00 /column inch for a display ad or 20 cents per word, for a classified ad. This is how we cover the costs of printing & distribution.

Spring Cleaning for Cars

Well it's that time of year to sell the dirty old 4x4 and buy a summer cruising convertible or phat hog, right? Actually the grass is not always greener in the vehicle pool, and this comes from experience.

Just recently we purchased a vehicle which we thought was a step up from what we were driving, it was newer, cleaner and had all the bells and whistles to "wow" us. Little did we know it was a wolf in sheeps clothing...

I like to think I know better about buying used cars, but apparently this isn't so. I have owned a few beaters in my day and I even worked at an auto body shop in my early 20s. I was bookkeeper/receptionist/auto detailer extraordinaire.

Yes, when the numbers all balanced, I'd put on my coveralls and start masking, vacuuming, pin-striping, buffing, scrubbing, washing, wiping and my least favourite - cleaning off the overspray... I hated that job - always more overspray hiding in places I'd never look and the paint thinner is just not healthy for your nails, clothes or lungs.

As it turned out, after detailing all day, I'd drive home in probably the dirtiest staff vehicle there. Never time to detail my own car.

so to make a long story short enough to fit this page, the lesson here today is... take time to care for your car! Love your car and it will love you! don't wait till the next pay day to get that lightbulb fixed, do it now!

Aside from the obvious regular maintenance like tune-ups and brake jobs, there are a lot of things you can do yourself. Just go down to the Salt Spring Auto Parts and see what's in store... get some new windshiel wipers, fresh antifreeze/coolant and even a cozy cushion throw or cool floor mat.

Take care of all the little details that you fell in love with when you bought it, the fog lamps, the sunroof, the cruise control and the mag wheels. Clean the carpets and wipe the dash (don't use Armor-all), use an old toothbrush for your tire rims, use q-tips to get into the small cracks or even popsicle sticks with baby wipes works for me. Vinegar diluted with warm water and a piece of newspaper roll end is great for windows. When you're done.. splurge on a cheap air freshener and cruise the town in your sweet wheels. you'll feel like they are brand new and you will save yourself time, money and frustration from buying a second hand vehicle that could end up being a money pit.

And if you've detailed your car and still want to sell it, then remember that a picture is worth a thousand words. For only $10/week you can advertise your vehicle with a photo and text in the Islands Marketplace Pre-owned Marketplace Listing shown below.

Salt Spring Potters Show features Korean artist Byung-Joo Suh

Whimsical sculptures and mystical forms - the work of internationally acclaimed Korean sculptor Byung-Joo Suh highlights the Salt Spring Potters Guild show and sale this Mother's Day weekend. An honoured new member of our guild, Byung-Joo uses a variety of techniques including slip casting, hand building, multiple firings and wheel throwing to create his other worldly sculptures.

Whether you're hunting for the perfect teapot, a morning coffee mug or an award-winning sculpture, this sale is your once-a-year chance to discover new creations from 22 of the gulf islands' finest ceramic artists.

The show takes place at Mahon Hall in the heart of Ganges at 114 Rainbow Road. Be the first to see new works at the opening reception on Friday May 7, 5-8pm. Meet and mingle with guild members and take home unique ceramic art at a reasonable price. A $1 raffle ticket gives you the chance to win a unique gift. The show continues on Saturday May 8, 10am - 4pm. Cash and credit cards accepted. For more information: www.saltspottersguild.com

The Power of One Community Volunteer Fair

If you have been pondering the idea of giving back to the community by becoming a volunteer but don't know where to start... this is an event you will want to attend.

Making the Volunteer Connection on Saturday, May 29th, from 9 a.m. - 3 p.m. at the Salt Spring Elementary.

The Power of One Community - Volunteer Fair will showcase about 30 local community groups from 9am to 3pm. The event is hosted by the Salt Spring Island Lions Club, Salt Spring Community Education and Volunteer Salt Spring. The community is invited to meet with non-profit organization, service club, art/cultural group or individual/group groups dealing with the Environment, Community Health and Safety, and support groups, to find out how they can make a positive difference.

This event is free to the community and designed to help raise awareness about the services, groups/organizations that exist on Salt Spring Island, and encourage residents to find out how they can access the services these organizations offer and to reflect on how they can get involved and give back to the community.

Evelyn Smith, event Chair feels "this is a wonderful opportunity for people of all ages to put themselves on the right path when deciding where to volunteer some of their time on the community."

Whether you are a retiree looking for something to do one or two days a week or a middle-aged person seeking a place to volunteer after work... there will be something at the fair for you. She also stressed how important it is for high school students to find a group or organization they will look forward to working with when finding a placement for community service hours.

"Hopefully they will be able to volunteer with an organization they have an interest in," said Smith. Becoming active in the community is a great way to build self-esteem and really feel like you're making a difference for both yourself and other people, said Smith.

"Being a volunteer can be a very fulfilling experience."

FREE CHILD SAFETY SEMINARS

In order to make this a family event the organizers have invited street SMART KIDZ, a Comox Valley based organization that provides a website full of information on how to keep your children safe. (www.streetsmartkidz.ca/) They will be presenting Child Safety Seminars for children aged 5 -15.

"Thanks to the Island Savings Credit Union (Salt Spring Branch) sponsorship," said Smith, "we will be able to offer the seminars for FREE. PRE-REGISTRATION is required.

The seminars will cover such topics bullying, Internet safety and teach self-defense techniques such as the back-pack toss (what to do if inappropriately approached by an adult in a car). Other techniques will teach kids how to avoid potential dangers on the street and at home.

FREE ADMISSION AND DOOR PRIZES

Admission to the Volunteer Fair is free. There will be free door prizes including a print donated by Robert Bateman, gift certificates from The Rock Salt Restaurant and from Hastings House, a gift bag of their own preserves and a beautiful book. The Lions Club will also be cooking hotdogs from 11 - 2pm.

To PRE-REGISTER your child for a seminar please OR to find out more about the Power of One Community - Volunteer Fair please visit (<http://members.shaw.ca/eesmith55/fair/>) or contact Evelyn (eesmith55@shaw.ca) phone 250-931-1029.

Keeping it Reehl

By Chef Georgiana Reehl

Of all the things that I cook, I think I really enjoy preparing soup the most. A pot of soup is such a nice thing. It warms you up and brings friends and family together. And it is really an economical and nutritional meal. Even when you are scrimping and low on funds, you can turn off cuts of meat, hambones, or chicken parts into a delicious gourmet meal with a little love, a few veggies and some well chosen seasonings. There are thick soups like Bouillabaisse that are close to stews and clear consumes. Russian borscht's. Spanish Gaspachos. French Pot-au-Feu's, and the old standby, hearty chicken soup that will pick you up when you are feeling weak and sick. Soup is enjoyed and has a national history all over the world.

Back in the Iron and Bronze ages when waterproof containers and pottery were discovered, early Human Beings began boiling foods and created new taste sensations. Foods that previously were toxic and inedible like acorns, or animal bones became delicious additions to the human diet. More than cooking over the fire in the air, heating foods and ingredients in a liquid opened up flavourful and savoury dishes and the world of soups and sauces began.

The word "soup" comes from the English term "sop", which was the bread soaked in the liquid. And the word "Restaurant" was first used in the 16th century in France, describing a concentrated, tasty and inexpensive liquid soup sold by street vendors called "restaurer's." In 1765 a Paris businessman opened up a shop specializing in "Restaurers" and the idea and term of a Restaurant was born.

Nutritious & Delicious... Soup is Healthy

Speaking of the history of Soup, I always like the stories about "Stone Soup." That story goes that hungry travellers would come to a village carrying only an empty pot. The villagers normally were very reluctant to share their precious food with strangers, but the travellers would fill the pot with water and drop a big stone in it, in the center of town. Curious villagers would ask and the travellers would say that they are making "stone soup", and it tastes wonderful, but just needs a little garnish...a little something missing to improve the flavour. The villagers wouldn't mind giving up a little garnish, or something and one by one they would add their little bit each until finally a tasty and nourishing soup would be made for all. In the Great Depression a large and porous rock would be kept in the stock pot. On good days when there was food the stones would absorb some of the flavour, and on days when there was no food the flavour left in the stones would make a weak soup..."stone soup", that was still better than not eating.

Most of us are lucky enough here to have food to eat, but the story of Stone Soup reminds me how people somehow get together and make it through the tough times. In hard times a central pot of soup has helped people survive and share nutritious and simple food together throughout all history.

Here is a soup recipe I have always liked.

Split Pea & Ham Soup

Ingredients:

- 1 pound dry green split peas
- 2 quarts water
- 1 meaty ham bone
- 1 cup chopped onion
- 1/4 teaspoon fresh minced garlic
- 1/4 teaspoon crushed cardamon
- 1/4 teaspoon dried thyme, crushed
- dash pepper • 1/2 teaspoon salt, or to taste

Preparation:

Directions for split pea soup

In a large pan cover dried peas with 2 quarts of water. Bring split peas to a boil and then boil gently for 2 more minutes. Then you set the peas aside to soak for 1 hour. Add ham bone, chopped onion, garlic, cardamon, thyme, and pepper. Bring split pea soup to a boil; cover, reduce heat, and simmer for 2 hours, stirring occasionally. Remove meat from bone; dice and return to pea soup. Simmer split pea soup slowly for 45 minutes, stirring occasionally. Taste split pea soup and add salt.

This recipe serves about 8 people.

This is what I was thinking...

By Tracey Supina

Packing for a Trip... It's All About the Shoes

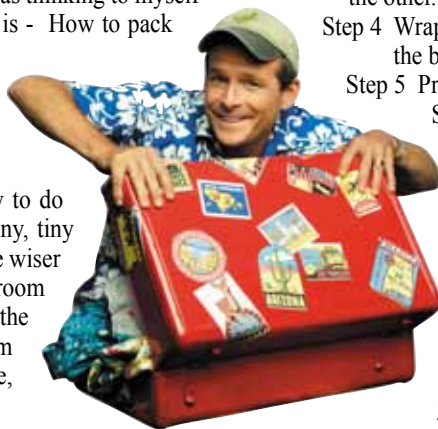

Packing, this is such a personal thing. Some people pack a couple days before, some pack the night before and well me.... I do all the laundry put all the laundry away and then maybe a hour or two before I leave I start packing. It gives me some kind of feeling like a fresh start on what I want to pack when I see everything clean, folded and put away.

I am going on a six day trip, a trip that was totally planned for me as a surprise (yes I am a spoiled brat). It's for my birthday – a day which I love to celebrate, I actually like to celebrate the whole month of April and I let everyone know it's my birthday. My age doesn't matter to me, I believe you are as young as you feel.

Back to the packing ordeal, I pack so much stuff it's unreal, I try to scale down but I just can't. I have shoes that go with everything and I also pack for the "what if" days. I was given a this suit case, a suit case that I think is a little on the smaller side AHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHHH!! The look I must have given, the thoughts running through my head... all I can think of is "how many shoes will I be able to take"

I decided to enlist some help from the internet. I was thinking to myself "I can't believe there is a web site for this but there is - How to pack a suitcase". So basically it gave me some tips I watched an instructional video, I checked my face book, checked emails, looked up a new recipe on The food network, and then decided I best stick to the task at hand... Packing and no more distractions.

So now I have an idea of what to pack, and how to do it. I'm still not going to put a single thing in the tiny, tiny suitcase until a couple hours before leaving. Am I the wiser after I read the tips on packing? Did I make more room out of the suitcase? Have I learnt how to pack is the question....We will see tomorrow, but for now I am feeling like my whole wardrobe can fit in the suitcase, well maybe not the shoes.....

PACK CLOTHING

- Step 1 Remember this order of operations: shirts on the bottom, then dresses (if applicable), then pants.
- Step 2 Stack tops, unfolded, by placing wrinkle-prone tops toward the bottom of a pile and less easily wrinkled ones toward the top.
- Step 3 Fold the sleeves in toward the shirts' torsos.
- Step 4 Fold the shirts in half from the bottom. You now have a rectangular bundle of shirts; place it in your suitcase.
- Step 5 Drape long dresses in the suitcase so that the ends hang over the sides.
- Step 6 Place pants and skirts on a flat surface; fold each in half lengthwise.
- Step 7 Stack pants and skirts on top of one another, with easily wrinkled ones on the bottom and sturdier ones, such as jeans, on top. Fold the stack over, so that its length is halved.
- Step 8 Place your stack of pants and skirts on top of the dresses, then fold the ends of the dresses over the pants and skirts.

PACK ACCESSORIES

- Step 1 Roll ties loosely.
- Step 2 Stuff socks in shoes. Pack underwear in mesh laundry bags or side pockets to save space.
- Step 3 Arrange each pair of shoes so that the heel of one aligns with the toe of the other.
- Step 4 Wrap pairs of shoes in separate plastic bags, and place them along the border of your suitcase.
- Step 5 Protect clothes from leaks by placing toiletries in a plastic bag.
- Step 6 Pack essential toiletries in a carry-on bag. Include your toothbrush, toothpaste, makeup, medication and other important items.

Also pack money, jewelry, travel documents, medication, keys and other valuables in your suitcase. Carry these items with you.

This was from the website EHOW.....

So I say after all this "pack how you want!"

None of this is going to change the way I pack and I am sure I will be saying on the trip "I FORGOT those shoes that go with these pants!".....cheers

Island Spotlight

Salt Spring Island Gymnastics Club Car Wash at Country Grocer Last Saturday. They raised just over $550 towards the girls upcoming competitions in Delta & Garden city & some money for their new suits. The girls just competed in Victoria last week-end and all came home with medals. Two of the girls went to the Provincials this month & did very well, medaling in all their events. They practice at the Fulford Hall & welcome any inquiries.

“Thanks to Country Grocer for letting us be there. Also to all the people who GENEROUSLY donated to have their cars washed & all the parents of the girls who donated their time.” SS Gymnastics.

Bi-weekly horoscope contributed by Patrick Arundell. Visit his website at www.patrickarundell.com for more great features... see below.

ARIES Mar 21st - Apr 20th

Cash-flow can still be tight. Some people may be slow to pay or you may find yourself getting hit with bank charges - even if you only drift a tiny bit over your limit. You may have to cut back on the treats, at least for now, so enjoy the things you have already. Next week looks a lot more positive for you Aries, as the cycles above, move in your direction.

TAURUS Apr 21st - May 21st

We'd like to think that our families will back us up when we need them, but politics dictate that things aren't always this straightforward. If you're lucky enough to have close relationships within your clan, treasure them. If not, keep looking beyond immediate squabbles. The big picture is shaping up well for you. Take any strains in your stride Taurus.

GEMINI May 22nd - Jun 21st

Sexy Venus is travelling deeper into your sign, arousing your natural love of being with people, and chatty interaction - especially with Mars' help. How ironic, because with your ruler Mercury still in rewind and the Sun clashing with Mars, there may be times when you'd rather put some distance between you and folk. This will improve, as May goes on.

CANCER Jun 22nd - Jul 23rd

Someone may give you some cause for concern. You may have told them something in confidence but unfortunately they may not keep it to themselves. Contentment comes from a sense of certainty in our lives but quite a lot can be in a state of flux for you. You may be in the process of discovering who your real friends are. Yet an old pal can cheer you up.

LEO Jul 24th - Aug 23rd

Drive and determination can see you do well, but they can also be the characteristics that others become wary of. Perhaps someone feels that you have been too self-confident, which has created a vat of hidden frustration towards you. Charm planet Venus urges you to try to be as constructive as possible. Reach out to others. Don't appear standoffish.

VIRGO Aug 24th - Sep 23rd

Are some of your attitudes a bit out of date? That doesn't mean that you aren't trendy or abreast of the latest films or sounds, but if there are personal attitudes that are confusing your thinking, it can see you fail to make the most of your human interactions. To find out, this may require you to be very self-honest, but if you are, you can gain immeasurably.

LIBRA Sep 24th - Oct 23rd

Mars has been mischievous at both the start and end of April and will be so as May begins. Indeed, you may still be feeling the impact of a potent Full Moon. Yet this new week can pour some light into your situation, and despite some business or financial tangles, the chances of an improvement in your social situation are good. It's time to lighten up!

SCORPIO Oct 24th - Nov 22nd

This week, bear in mind the old adage of it's not what we say, but how we say it. With Mercury continuing to rewind, even if you're careful, someone could take something completely the wrong way. Mars can, if you are not too careful, make you feel that you're above the patience needed to make things work well in relationships. This'd be a mistake.

SAGITTARIUS Nov 23rd - Dec 21st

Your broad brush to life can intensely dislike the minutia of situations - that is unless you have a good slice of Virgo influences in your birth chart. But the devil continues to be in the detail. Yet, Mars does receive a warming and flirty distraction from the vibes of Venus. Travel plans flourish and getting the t's crossed and the i's dotted here, can be a good thing.

CAPRICORN Dec 22nd - Jan 20th

Socially, things may not run as smoothly as you'd like. People's unreliability can be a problem, but then your own decisions can be subject to switchbacks. There may be a problem of choice overload, and in this instance it may be there can be too much of a good thing. In love, co-dependence will get you down, especially if a partner is also clingy.

AQUARIUS Jan 21st - Feb 19th

You may feel that other people should give you more support. After all, being a kind hearted Aquarian you rarely let others down yourself. You may be right but you can't demand that they help you, if you do, it will make you unpopular. Just go with it for one more week, and things are going to revive superbly for you. May can turn out to be fun and flirty!

PISCES Feb 20th - Mar 20th

If you are one of those people, who prides yourself as being conscientiously on top of everything you may need to change your approach this week and be more laidback. Chasing perfection is only likely to wear you out. If however, you tend to be a bit dreamy, this week can be good, helping to get you on your toes more, and get things done.

SALTSPRING SOLILOQUIES

"Utopia"

Jim Anderson is a writer living on Saltspring. He is working on a metamorphosis of the human mind. © 2005 by Jim Anderson, Saltspring Island

250 miles north of our idyllic and serene Saltspring Island lies another island that almost 100 years ago was the site of a dream of an island utopia called "Sointula." Immigrant Finnish coal miners tired of the despair, exploitation and alcoholism of James Dunsmuir's man-eating coal mines gathered their wives and children and took a leap of faith together. With relentless fortitude and hope they carved from the wilderness a sanctuary of justice, humanity and self-sufficient emancipation from the hate and oppression of an inhuman world. 20 years of valiant struggle later under the brutal pressure of capital, profit, greed, ignorance and human frailty that dream collapsed in failure.

It is a story repeated again and again throughout all history. Dreams of utopia, equality, freedom and perfect community self-destruct and shatter against the rocks of cold, hard reality in our world. Thinkers and dreamers through the ages. More, Owen, deChardin, Confucius, Tolstoy...on and on. Hearts and minds captured once again and deep in darkness, fear and oppression the dream somehow flickers to life once again, only one day to shatter and fall into lost oblivion.

Will that dream never die? Again and again the cold realities destroy it, and yet it will not die. Crushed and broken in an uncaring and cold world. Buried seemingly forever beneath bottom line, greed, power, exploitation and brutality it suffers and perishes. It is the way it has always been. Yet it miraculously survives. Somehow.

"Might is right" may be the way things really are, but it is not enough. It has never been enough. It is the way the world is, we just cannot survive in it. Too cold. Too cruel. Something priceless and incomparable missing.

And so even in hopelessness, agony and lost blackness. At the end. Nowhere to go. It will show itself. In impossible despair, a single voice quaveringly raised in song, and embattled and gasping souls joining in. Trembling hands reaching out, finding connection, finding community. Shoulders set together against impossible odds. One becomes more. More becomes many. "Let's try. One more time." And the human spirit stumbles courageously towards sunlight once again. Gathering together against hopeless oppression and crushing despair. Human life together around a dream. One more time.

You and I live today in a world once more careening towards oblivion. The grand social experiment of "from each according to his means to each according to his needs" in the East has shattered and collapsed into desperate chaos and desolate, broken dreams. And the vision born in revolutionary fervor for freedom, truth and justice for all in the West is crumbling into spiritual bankruptcy, greed and social disintegration. The cold, hard reality of a dark age of brutal oppression approaches again.

Will it ever end? Why does that dream always fail?

Listen:

It is not a law of nature. It is simply what we do to each other. It is a failure somewhere deep in the heart, soul and psyche of human beings.

Maybe we should finally see this. The cold shattering reality is that in this world we really do not care enough for each other. The crushing force that finally destroys all beautiful visions of utopia and dreams of "Liberte! Equalite! Fraternite!" is that other life on this planet is never worth more than our own life. All we really know and finally care about is our own personal and private lives. This is the essence of all greed, brutality and inhumanity on earth. It is why the dream always dies. It is the way it has always been.

And that merciless, terrifying and desperate oblivion will always haunt us and destroy the human dream until we find an answer to that. So that the next time in broken, lost darkness when the human spirit lifts into song surrounded by impossible odds and the dream flickers to life one more time...this time it will never die.
